The Bristol Diocesan Board of Education (Corporate Member)

The Bristol Diocesan Board of Education (BDBE) plays a key role in supporting and guiding the development of Church of England schools within the Diocese of Bristol. Its mission is to provide strategic advice, support governance, and promote high educational standards, ensuring that schools uphold the Christian values at the heart of their ethos. The BDBE works closely with the Blue Kite Academy Trust to foster an environment where pupils can thrive both academically and spiritually, nurturing a strong sense of community and moral responsibility.

Laura Brierley – Diocesan Corporate Member (DCM) Representative

Laura started teaching in 1979 and continued to work in education until retirement in July 2023. Her teaching experience was varied and leadership roles included working as deputy head at two local schools – Penhill Junior and Lyneham Junior – and head teacher at both Brinkworth Earl Danby's VC CE Primary and Catherine Wayte Primary School. In addition, Laura worked as an LLE (Local Leader of Education) supporting school leaders and has worked with Blue Kite schools as a member of the Blue Kite leadership team.

Laura is a member of the PCC at St Sampson's Church and is actively involved in various aspects of church life including Eco Church. Laura brings experience as head teacher of a church school – where OFSTED graded the school 'good' and the SIAMS inspection judged the school to be 'outstanding'.
